

ORLA FOR CAPTAIN

WHY I WANT TO RUN

- Love skiing, love racing, love being in the club = why not
- I'm committed to the club and will take the role seriously.
- I want to help build up more hype for the competitive side of the club, creating a proper team vibe and encouraging more people to take part.
- My life needs purpose.

WHY I SHOULD BE CAPTAIN

- I can actually ski! A brilliant skill to have in a snow club. I've been skiing since I could walk and have also been racing on dendex for a few years, so I will not only organise races etc but I'll be there competing with you! And, to top it off, I am knowledgeable in the art of ski servicing, so our equipment will be in safe, nurturing hands.
- While I can't actually do freestyle myself I'd still like to encourage and organise participation in freestyle competitions. They need time to shine too.

wow so cool and obviously fun and reliable looking...
cough cough

- A giant bulk of the work behind captain is organising lessons, training and competitions which I'd be great for considering the fact that I'm not only super organised but I actually like organising things (Google spreadsheets is my happy place).
- Communication is also important and I'd be all over that. I really want to advertise our training and competition events broadly to encourage more people to join and take part, and I'm excited to come up with new ideas and work with other exec to do this.
...¿Team Jerseys?

ah what dazzling radiance,
obvs great captain material

vote 4 me :)
